LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,

BUREAU OF STATISTICS,

Washington, D. C., June 16, 1906.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a compilation of statistics of the imports of farm and forest products for the year ending June 30, 1905, with those for two previous years given for comparison. The data have been derived from the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor, the work having been done by the Division of Foreign Markets, under the direction of its chief, George K. Holmes.

This report is intended as a continuation of a series of bulletins on the same subject designed for the use of this Department and to meet the demands of a large number of correspondents, since they contain an arrangement of the statistics and a determination of totals, with various comparisons, that are not presented in any other publication.

It is respectfully recommended that this report be published as Bulletin No. 45 of this Bureau.

Very respectfully,

VICTOR H. OLMSTED,

Chief of Bureau.

HON. JAMES WILSON,

Secretary of Agriculture.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS.

IMPORTS.—Goods from a foreign country entered at a custom-house.

IMPORTS FOR CONSUMPTION.—Goods which have passed from the control of customs officers into domestic trade in this country.

FOREIGN EXPORTS OR REEXPORTS.—Goods which have been imported into this country, either for reexport or for consumption, and are afterwards exported, having “undergone no change in form or condition or enhancement in value by the application of labor in the United States.”

DOMESTIC EXPORTS.—Goods produced or manufactured in this country from either domestic or imported raw materials, and which are shipped to foreign countries.

TRANSIT OR IN TRANSIT TRADE.—Goods from a foreign country passing through the United States on the way to the same or another foreign country.

TRANSSHIPMENT TRADE.—Goods from a foreign country received at a United States port and there reshipped to a foreign country without being entered as an import into this country.

In transit and transshipment trade is not included in the imports and exports of the United States, but is reported separately.

THE COUNTRY OF CONSIGNMENT is that which is mentioned in the exporting or importing documents as the one from which or to which the merchandise is to be shipped. The regulations of the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor, are:

Collectors will consider the country in which merchandise was invoiced as the country whence the same was imported into the United States.

In export statements the countries stated should be, so far as can be ascertained, those for which the exports are destined for a market. * * * Exporters will be required to state in their manifests of goods exported the country of ultimate destination.

The country from which or to which goods are consigned may or may not be the country of origin or ultimate destination, as the case may be; the foregoing regulation with regard to the country of ultimate destination in export statements does not result in a material representation of countries of ultimate destination in place of countries of consignment in the records of the exports of this country, when these two countries are not the same.

VALUES.—The values of imported articles subject to ad valorem duties are defined by the act of Congress of June 10, 1890, as—

The actual market value or wholesale price of such merchandise as bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities at the time of exportation to the United States in the principal markets of the country from whence imported, and in the condition in which such merchandise is there bought for exportation to the United States or consigned to the United States for sale, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks, and coverings of any kind, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition ready for shipment to the United States.

The value of all other imports, whether subject to specific duty or free of duty, is also determined according to the law just quoted.

The value of domestic exports is their value at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

The value of foreign exports when shipped directly from bonded warehouses (usually dutiable goods) is their import value, but when not shipped from bonded warehouses (usually free goods) the value is determined in the same manner as for domestic exports.

Goods in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another are valued in the same manner as imports.

Valuation deceptions.—The value of imported articles subject to ad valorem duties is believed to be determined with more accuracy, according to the legal method of valuation, than other imports (whether subject to specific duties or free) and exports; the valuations of dutiable imports and of exports dutiable in foreign countries tend to understatement, and the valuations of imports that are free of duty are liable to inflation for the purpose of trade deception.

WEIGHTS.—In the official trade returns of the United States, the weights of all articles exported are net weights, and also the weights of all imports, except those which are subject to a specific duty, levied upon the weight of the packages, including the weight of the article itself, together with some or all of its coverings. All tons mentioned in this bulletin, except where it is otherwise stated, are long tons of 2,240 pounds.

DISCREPANCIES IN FOREIGN TRADE STATISTICS of various countries are partly due to different methods of estimating values, of determining countries of origin and destination, and of classifying merchandise, and to differences in dates. The United States does not include c. i. f. charges (cost, insurance, freight) in the value of either exports or imports (except some foreign exports), while the United Kingdom, for instance, includes these in the value of its imports. It is said that these charges are often erroneously included by British shippers in their statement of export values, especially when the selling price includes cost of delivery.

The United States trade returns include the free zones of Hamburg, Bremen, and Lübeck, in Germany, while the statistics of the German Empire do not.

In consequence of various sources of discrepancy, it is generally futile to undertake to balance an export of this country by any official statement of import into a foreign country, and often there is not an approximate agreement.

NONCONTIGUOUS POSSESSIONS.—The noncontiguous possessions of the United States are those not included between Canada on the north and Mexico and the Gulf of Mexico on the south, and between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. The trade returns of all the possessions of this country, except the Philippine Islands, are included in the total trade of the United States. In the trade statistics for any noncontiguous possession, all other noncontiguous possessions, except the Philippine Islands, are included with the United States; thus shipments from Hawaii to Guam are included in the total shipments from Hawaii to the United States.

IMPORTS OF FARM AND FOREST PRODUCTS, 1903-1905.

GENERAL SURVEY.

IMPORTS OF FARM PRODUCTS FOR SIXTEEN YEARS.

The imports of farm products in 1905 were the largest in sixteen years. They were $92,000,000 more than in 1904, and $125,000,000 more than the annual average 1900-1904. This increased value of imports is due to two factors—larger quantities of some articles, as wool, coffee, and hides and skins, and to a higher import price of other articles, as sugar and wool. The average value per capita for the imports of farm products into the United States shows an annual average for 1890-1894 of $6.24; for 1895-1899, $5.12; and for 1900-1904, $5.43. In 1905 the per capita value increased to $6.66.

IMPORTS OF FOREST PRODUCTS FOR ELEVEN YEARS.

Table 2 shows that in 1905 the imports of forest products were the largest in eleven years. They were nearly double that of the annual average 1895-1899 and 40 per cent larger than the annual average 1900-1904. In 1905 the imports of forest products were $29,500,000 larger than the domestic exports, while in 1904 they were only $9,500,000 larger.

BY GRAND DIVISIONS.

According to Table 3 the value of imports of farm products from all the grand divisions except Africa were larger in 1905 than in either of the previous two years. In 1905 the value of the imports from Africa was larger than in 1904 by $1,700,000 and smaller than 1903 by $1,200,000.

The value of the imports of forest products from all the grand divisions was larger in 1905 than in 1904 and smaller than those of 1903 only in the case of Oceania and Africa.

IMPORTANT COUNTRIES CONSIGNING FARM PRODUCTS.

CHANGE IN AMOUNTS.

Of the total $554,000,000 worth of farm products imported in 1905, $288,000,000, or more than one-half, came from the six countries—Cuba, Brazil, United Kingdom, Japan, Italy, and France.

There have been some minor changes in the importance of the principal countries importing farm products. The Chinese Empire dropped from fifth place in 1904 to eighth in 1905; Mexico from sixth to seventh; Germany and British East Indies interchanging, the former from eleventh in 1904 to tenth in 1905, the latter from tenth in 1904 to eleventh in 1905.

In 1905 there were 15 countries from which were consigned more than $10,000,000 worth of farm products as against 12 in 1904.

There were some marked increases in trade with certain countries. In 1903 Cuba consigned $56,000,000 worth of farm products and in 1905 $79,000,000; Brazil, $49,000,000 in 1903 and $70,000,000 in 1905; Japan, $32,000,000 in 1903 and $37,000,000 in 1905; Canada, $11,000,000 in 1903 and $15,000,000 in 1905; British Australasia, $5,000,000 in 1903 and $9,000,000 in 1905; and Argentina, $9,000,000 in 1903 and $14,000,000 in 1905.

CUBA.

During the fiscal year 1905 the value of farm products consigned to the United States from Cuba increased from $71,000,000 to $79,000,000, as compared with those of 1904. This large increase was caused by the higher value of the sugar imported. Although the value in 1905 as compared with 1904 increased $8,000,000 the quantity decreased 760,000,000 pounds. The increase in the quantity of tobacco consigned in 1905 was from 20,502,624 pounds to 21,473,449 and in value from $9,800,000 to $10,800,000.

BRAZIL.

Similarly, as the increase in Cuba was due to a single article, so the increase in Brazil was due to coffee alone. The increase in the value of the consignments of coffee in 1905 as compared with 1904 was $16,000,000, and in the quantity 79,000,000 pounds. The per cent of increase in value was 33, and in quantity only 10. This shows again that the increased value was due more to a higher import price than to a larger quantity.

In the other principal items the value of hides and skins increased from $2,700,000 to $2,900,000, sugar from $200,000 to $1,300,000, and cocoa from $1,060,000 to $1,240,000. The quantity of sugar imported in 1904 was abnormally low, which explains the wide variation between 1904 and 1905.

UNITED KINGDOM.

The United Kingdom consigns a larger variety of farm products than any other country. However, the consignments of only a few articles are large in amounts: Wool and hides and skins are the most important. These two items in 1905 cover the increase of $9,000,000. The value of the consignments of wool from the United Kingdom amounted to $9,400,000 in 1904 and to $16,700,000 in 1905. The increase in the quantity of wool of class I (clothing) was from 17,335,314 pounds in 1904 to 36,220,624 pounds in 1905, and in wool of class II (combing) from 9,443,853 pounds to 20,074,992 pounds. The decrease in wool of class III (carpet) was from 31,531,212 pounds to 20,398,343 pounds. Over 70 per cent of the wool exported from the United Kingdom is of foreign production, and comes from Cape of Good Hope, Australia, and New Zealand. The increase in the total hides and skins was from $4,900,000 in 1904 to $6,800,000 in 1905.

JAPAN.

The principal item consigned from Japan is raw silk. It increased in value from $24,400,000 in 1904 to $28,900,000 in 1905, or $4,500,000, and in quantity from 6,800,000 to 8,400,000 pounds, or 1,600,000 pounds. This represents an increase of 18 per cent in value and 24 per cent in quantity. Tea, the second item of importance, decreased in value from $7,900,000 in 1904 to $7,200,000 in 1905. Together the silk and tea make up $36,000,000 of the $37,000,000 worth of farm products consigned from that country in 1905.

ITALY.

The imports of farm products from Italy show an increase of $7,000,000 in 1905 as compared with 1904. The value of the principal item, raw silk, consigned from Italy was low in 1904 and high in 1905, which explains the wide variation. In 1903 it had a value of $13,000,000, in 1904 $9,000,000, and in 1905 $17,000,000. This item made in 1905 one-half of the total value of the imports from that country. Lemons, the next article of importance, decreased in value from $3,600,000 in 1904 to $2,900,000 in 1905. The value of the olive oils increased from $1,120,000 to $1,240,000 and the value of cheese decreased from $1,430,000 to $1,370,000.

CANADA.

The value of the imports of farm products from Canada was $5,000,000 more in 1905 than in 1904. This was due to increased consignment of the three articles, raw silk, wheat, and hides and skins. In 1903 the imports of wheat from Canada amounted to 1,076,000 bushels, in 1904 4,000 bushels, and in 1905 at 3,100,000 bushels.

Of the total 3,103,000 bushels of wheat imported in 1905 only 1,646,000 were imported for consumption; the remainder was entered in bond to be reexported, some in the form of flour and some as wheat. The increased shipment of raw silk is probably due to the shipment of silk through Canada from some country in Asia.

FOREST PRODUCTIONS.

During the last three years there has been a marked increase in the value of forest products imported into the United States. In 1903 the value of the imports of forest products was $71,478,022, in 1904 $79,619,296, and in 1905 $92,680,555. This represents an increase in value in 1904 of 11 per cent and in 1905 of about 30 per cent as compared with 1903.

Among the principal importing countries Brazil has shown the greatest increase. In 1903 it sent to the United States $17,263,685 worth of forest products; in 1904, $22,492,761, an increase of 30 per cent over that of 1903; in 1905, $28,503,634, an increase of 66 per cent. This large increase is due to larger imports of india rubber.

Canada is second in importance in the value of imports of forest products. From that country comes most of the imports of lumber and wood pulp. During the last three years there has been but a slight increase in the value of the imports from that country. British East Indies, the third country of importance in value of imports of forest products, has shown considerable increase, especially in the last year. The imports for the most part were gums. For the next three countries, Belgium, Portugal, and Germany, india rubber is the principal item. As it is well known that india rubber is not produced in these countries, it can be readily seen that they are merely countries of reshipment.

British Australasia, another country from which large imports of forest products are derived, has come to the front remarkably in three years. This is due to the increased imports of copal, cowrie, and dammar. In 1903 there was imported from British Australasia only $5,840 worth of these gums, but in 1904 it increased to $966,330 and in 1905 to $1,680,965.

PRINCIPAL FARM AND FOREST PRODUCTS IMPORTED.

Both the imports of animal matter and vegetable matter show a marked increase in 1905. Although the imports of animal matter in 1904 were $10,000,000 less than in 1903, the imports for 1905 were $40,000,000 larger. This increase in 1905 is due to three principal items—silk, wool, and packing-house products. The increase in the value of wool was due to increased quantity and to a higher import price. The increase in silk was in both quantity and value. The principal item under packing-house products is hides and skins. The increased receipts of this item in 1905 cover the increase not made up by the other two items.

Value of the imports of vegetable matter was $15,000,000 greater in 1904 and $58,000,000 in 1905 than in 1903. This increase is due to two articles—sugar and coffee. In the case of sugar there was a decrease in quantity in 1905, but the higher import price caused the total value to increase. The increase in coffee was due to both increase in receipts and to a higher import price.

The increase in forest products was due almost entirely to the one item, india rubber, the imports of which have increased rapidly in the last three years.

SUGAR.

The United States and the United Kingdom are the world's largest sugar consuming and importing countries. Together they annually receive two-thirds of the total world's imports. The amount imported by each is about equal. In 1905 the United States received 3,680,000,000 pounds of strictly foreign sugar. In addition to this amount, there was received by the United States^a 271,319,993 pounds from Porto Rico, and $32,721,387 pounds from Hawaii, making a total of 4,784,000,000 pounds. Of the foreign sugar, Cuba consigned 2,058,000,000 pounds and Dutch East Indies 899,000,000, or together about 80 per cent of the total. In 1904 the imports from the Dutch East Indies were low, amounting to only 440,000,000 pounds.

Although the total quantity of sugar imported shows a decrease, the total value has increased. The reason for this is the increase in the import price. The following table will show the decrease in the quantity of raw sugar imported and the rise in the import prices:

WOOL IMPORTS.

During the last three years the imports of wool have undergone marked changes. In 1904 the imports of wool, class 1 (clothing) and of class 2 (combing) were 46,000,000 and 13,000,000 pounds, respectively, and in 1905, 110,000,000 and 27,000,000, showing an increase in 1905 by more than 100 per cent. In the same years the total value for all classes increased 86 per cent, while the quantity increased only 43 per cent. The following table will show that there has been a constant rise in the average import price for all three classes:

TABLE 8.—Average import price of wool, fiscal years 1903-1905.

Of the 110,000,000 pounds of wool of class 1 (clothing) imported in 1905, 36,000,000 was consigned from the United Kingdom, 33,000,000 from Argentina, and 27,000,000 from British Australasia. Of wool of class 2 (combing), the United Kingdom consigned 20,000,000 pounds of the total 27,000,000 imported. Of wool of class 3 (carpet), out of the 113,000,000 pounds, the Chinese Empire and European Russia each consigned 28,000,000, the United Kingdom 20,000,000, and Asiatic Turkey 12,000,000.

In 1905, as compared with 1904, the United Kingdom, Argentina, and British Australasia doubled their consignments of wool under class 1 (clothing).

VEGETABLE FIBERS.

In 1905 the United States imported $48,000,000 worth of vegetable fibers. Of this amount cotton makes up $9,000,000. Of the 61,000,000 pounds imported 52,000,000 was consigned from Egypt. The reason for this large import of cotton from Egypt is its use in the making of the finer grades of cotton cloth. The two fibers which excel cotton in the value of the imports are manila and sisal grass. In 1905 the value of the former was $12,000,000 and the latter $15,000,000. In 1905 the Philippine Islands furnished 56,511 tons of the total 61,562 tons of the manila imported and Mexico 97,698 tons of the total 100,301 of sisal grass. The only other fiber imported in large quantities is jute and jute butts, of which India consigned 93,843 of the total 98,215 tons imported in 1905.

HIDES AND SKINS.

One of the largest items among the imports of farm products is hides and skins. In 1905 the value for this item was $65,000,000 and the quantity 338,000,000 pounds. In 1905 113,000,000 pounds consisted of cattle hides, 98,000,000 of goatskins, and 127,000,000 of "hides and skins other than furs, not elsewhere specified." Under the last head are included sheepskins and horsehides; the former makes up the larger portion of the total.

In 1905 of the total cattle hides Argentina consigned 21,000,000 pounds, or 19 per cent, and Canada 19,000,000, or 17 per cent; of the goatskins India consigned 35,000,000, or 36 per cent, and of the "hides and skins other than furs, not elsewhere specified" the United Kingdom consigned 30,000,000 pounds, or 23 per cent, Russia 22,000,000, or 17 per cent, and Germany 19,000,000, or 15 per cent.

INDIA RUBBER.

Of the imports of forest products india rubber is by far the most important. In 1905 it formed over 53 per cent of the total. In 1904 the quantity of india rubber increased over that of 1903 by 9 per cent and in 1905 by 22 per cent. In value the increase was even larger. In 1904 it was 33 per cent and in 1905 over 60 per cent. Brazil furnishes over 50 per cent of the total india rubber imported. Belgium, Germany, Portugal, and the United Kingdom supply large amounts. In 1905, out of a total imports of 67,000,000 pounds, Brazil supplied nearly 36,600,000, United Kingdom 10,000,000, Belgium 5,200,000, Germany 3,700,000, and Portugal 4,500,000. The United Kingdom obtains most of its rubber from Brazil, and Belgium from the Congo Free State.

LUMBER.

The next item of importance among the forest products is lumber, with its principal source in Canada. In all three years that country has supplied 97 per cent or more of the lumber received by the United States. In 1905 704,956 M feet of boards, deals, and other sawed lumber and 758,725 M shingles were received from this source. That country, together with Cuba, supplies practically all our imports of lumber. Canada also supplies over 70 per cent of the wood pulp imported to the United States.

The reason that Canada has no competitor in our imports of lumber is that it can be shipped to the United States so much cheaper than from any other country.

CABINET WOODS

The next item of importance is cabinet woods. The sources of supply seem to be widely distributed. The United Kingdom is credited with the largest amount. It produces none of these woods, but derives them principally from British West Africa, British Honduras, and Cuba. Out of the total value of $3,000,000 the United Kingdom furnished in 1905 $928,000, Cuba $457,000, Mexico $443,000, and British India $152,000. The other countries consigning cabinet woods are found for the most part in Central America.

DETAILED STATEMENT OF IMPORTS.

In Table 9 have been tabulated in detail the statistics of imports of farm and forest products for 1903, 1904, and 1905, by countries and by articles.
